As employees and representatives of the Dreamchaser, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Reporting Responsibility

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns internally so that Dreamchaser can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions. It is the responsibility of all board members, officers, employees and volunteers to report concerns about violations of Dreamchaser's code of ethics or suspected violations of law or regulations that govern Dreamchaser's operations.

No Retaliation

It is contrary to the values of Dreamchaser for anyone to retaliate against any board member, officer, employee or volunteer who in good faith reports an ethics violation, or a suspected violation of law, such as a complaint of discrimination, or suspected fraud, or suspected violation of any regulation governing the operations of Dreamchaser. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Reporting Procedure

Dreamchaser has an open door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with the CEO or a board member. If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with. Supervisors are required to report complaints or concerns about suspected ethical and legal violations in writing to the Dreamchaser's CEO or vice president, who has the responsibility to investigate all reported complaints. Employees with concerns or complaints may also submit their concerns in writing directly to the CEO or the vice president.

CEO or Vice president

Dreamchaser's accounting and audits are completed by Don Wilson, CPA.

The Dreamchaser's CEO shall immediately notify the board committee of any concerns or complaint regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing and work with the Board and CPA until the matter is resolved.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a written complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Confidentiality

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations
